The Family of Joey Neuner wishes to express our heartfelt gratitude to all who offered comfort and support following his passing. We are deeply thankful to Father Bill for his visit to the hospital, his comforting presence, and the beautiful funeral Mass. Our appreciation extends to the sacristan, the Adult and Children choirs, and our organist Annette, for the music and reverence that made the liturgy so meaningful. A special thank you to the SHS students and staff who formed the honor guard and lined the road to the cemetery—your tribute was deeply touching and will always be remembered. We are also grateful to those who prepared and assisted at the funeral luncheon, to everyone who brought food, sent memorial donations, cards, flowers, or expressed sympathy, and to all who have kept us in your prayers. Please know how much your kindness has comforted us. It is truly a blessing to belong to such a caring parish family.
